

PRESS RELEASE

COSTA CONCORDIA, MEDIASET NEWS MARATHON

LIVE IN PRIME TIME ON RETE4 AND TGCOM24

MATRIX SPECIAL IN THE LATE SLOT

This evening Mediaset will dedicate a long marathon to the developments surrounding the shipwreck of the Costa Concordia.

Retequattro and the all news channel Tgcom24 will change their scheduled programmes and together dedicate the prime time slot to the developments of the tragedy off the coast of the Isola del Giglio: a number of survivors of the wreck will be in the studio, along with the coordinator of the recovery operation engaged in attempting to avoid also a possible ecological disaster.

The special can also be seen in live streaming of the web site www.tgcom24.it.

In the late slot, meanwhile, will be an extraordinary episode of Matrix, presented by Alessio Vinci on Canale 5. Guests in the studio will include the head of the port authority and other witnesses of the tragic incident.
