

PRESS RELEASE

SHIPWRECK OF THE COSTA CONCORDIA: MEDIASET CONTINUES TO KEEP THE PUBLIC INFORMED

TGCOM24, TG5 E STUDIO APERTO LIVE WITH SPECIALS AND EXTRAORDINARY EDITIONS

There will be changes also today to the Mediaset schedule as TgCom24, Tg5 and Studio Aperto continue to inform the public about developments from the shipwreck of the Costa Concordia off the coast of Tuscany.

Extended live coverage, which began yesterday at dawn on the all news channel edited by Mario Giordano, will continue with real time updates from the site of the tragedy and a special with guests and exclusive documents starting at 2 pm and continuing for the rest of the day.

On Canale5 at 3,30 pm, a special edition of Tg5, edited by Clemente Mimun, will be broadcast.

Studio Aperto edited by Giovanni Toti will open on Italia1 two extensive windows at 4 pm and 5.30 pm.

Later in the evening, in the slot traditionally allocated to the weekly magazine show Terra, Canale 5 will broadcast an extended Speciale Tg5 with live links, studio guests, first hand accounts and unseen coverage.

Through its generalist channels and all news system TgCom24, Mediaset news continues to offer viewers and internet users the possibility of being constantly kept up to date with the dramatic events underway.
